declare, that I will not hold the German Embassy to the Russian Federation or any individual who is employed by the German Embassy liable for any accidents or injuries I might encounter or receive during a Broomball League event. Such an event includes captains' meetings, matches and any further activities connected to the Broomball League.

I am aware of the fact that this shall include any accidents or incidents that may occur on the way once inside the embassy premises to or from the matches, the matches themselves, enroute to or from and in the locker- rooms and showers as well as the bar and restaurant or any other part of the embassy compound.

I further declare that I see it as my own responsibility to take the necessary precautions (i.e. insurance coverage) in case of injuries.

I declare that I have read the paragraphs, that I sign at my own free will and that I acknowledge the contents and the consequences herein described.

I am aware of the fact that my participation in any broomball activity on the embassy premises depends on my having signed this declaration.
